

AHA JOURNALS: ONLINE DISCLOSURE REFERENCE FORM

Please note that this form should NOT be sent to the journal's editorial office. All the data below will be collected through our online submission process and this form is for reference purposes only. The corresponding author is encouraged to print or download this page and distribute it among his or her coauthors prior to submission. Once the data is gathered from each author, the submitter will be able enter the information online at the time of submission. Further information about conflicts can be found in the journal's Instructions to Authors, available through the journal's Web site. (Select journal at <http://www.ahajournals.org>.)

Each author is required to identify all relationships within the last 2 years that are relevant to the topic of the manuscript. A relationship is "relevant" if the relationship or interest relates to the topic of the manuscript in terms of any of the following: the same or similar subject matter or topic; the same, similar, or competing drug or device, product, or service, intellectual property, or asset; a drug or device company or its competitor; or has the reasonable potential to result in financial, professional, or other personal gain or loss for you, members of your household, or employer. Please insert brief explanatory information describing each relationship in each category in the chart below.
